DETAILED ACTION

1. The Amendment and Affidavit filed by Applicant on 12/09/2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendment/Arguments

2. Applicant's amendment and arguments filed on 12/09/2005 have been fully considered and they are found unpersuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.

Art Unit: 1713

2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. Claims 1-24 and 26-27 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C.

103(a) as being unpatentable over Arendt, U.S. Patent No.

5,236,987 (hereinafter "Arendt"); Arendt, WO 89/00173

(hereinafter "Arendt II") in view of Godwin et al., WO 97/39060

(hereinafter "Godwin"). The results from the example, Exxal 10, which falls outside the scope of the claim language is not sufficient to overcome the present obvious rejection. The example, Exxal 10, is not only outside the scope of the present claims, but it is not representative of the prior art.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

7. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1713
